Senior Class History

On August 23, 1948, our present Senior Class started with twenty-seven Freshmen enrolled. This was a day we had long looked forward to. We elected the following class officers: President, James Neale; Vice President, J. D. Grogan; Secretary, Sue Thompson; Reporter, Rosetta Wilson. We chose Mrs. Trucille Kemp for our sponsor.

We were represented on the basketball team by James Neale, Harry Lovett and J. D. Grogan. Our classmate, Betty Ahart, was attendant to the Basketball Queen. We were honored to have another of our classmates, Sue Thompson, elected as cheerleader. As our Freshman play, we presented "Funny Brats." We enjoyed our class picnic at the Kentucky Dam.

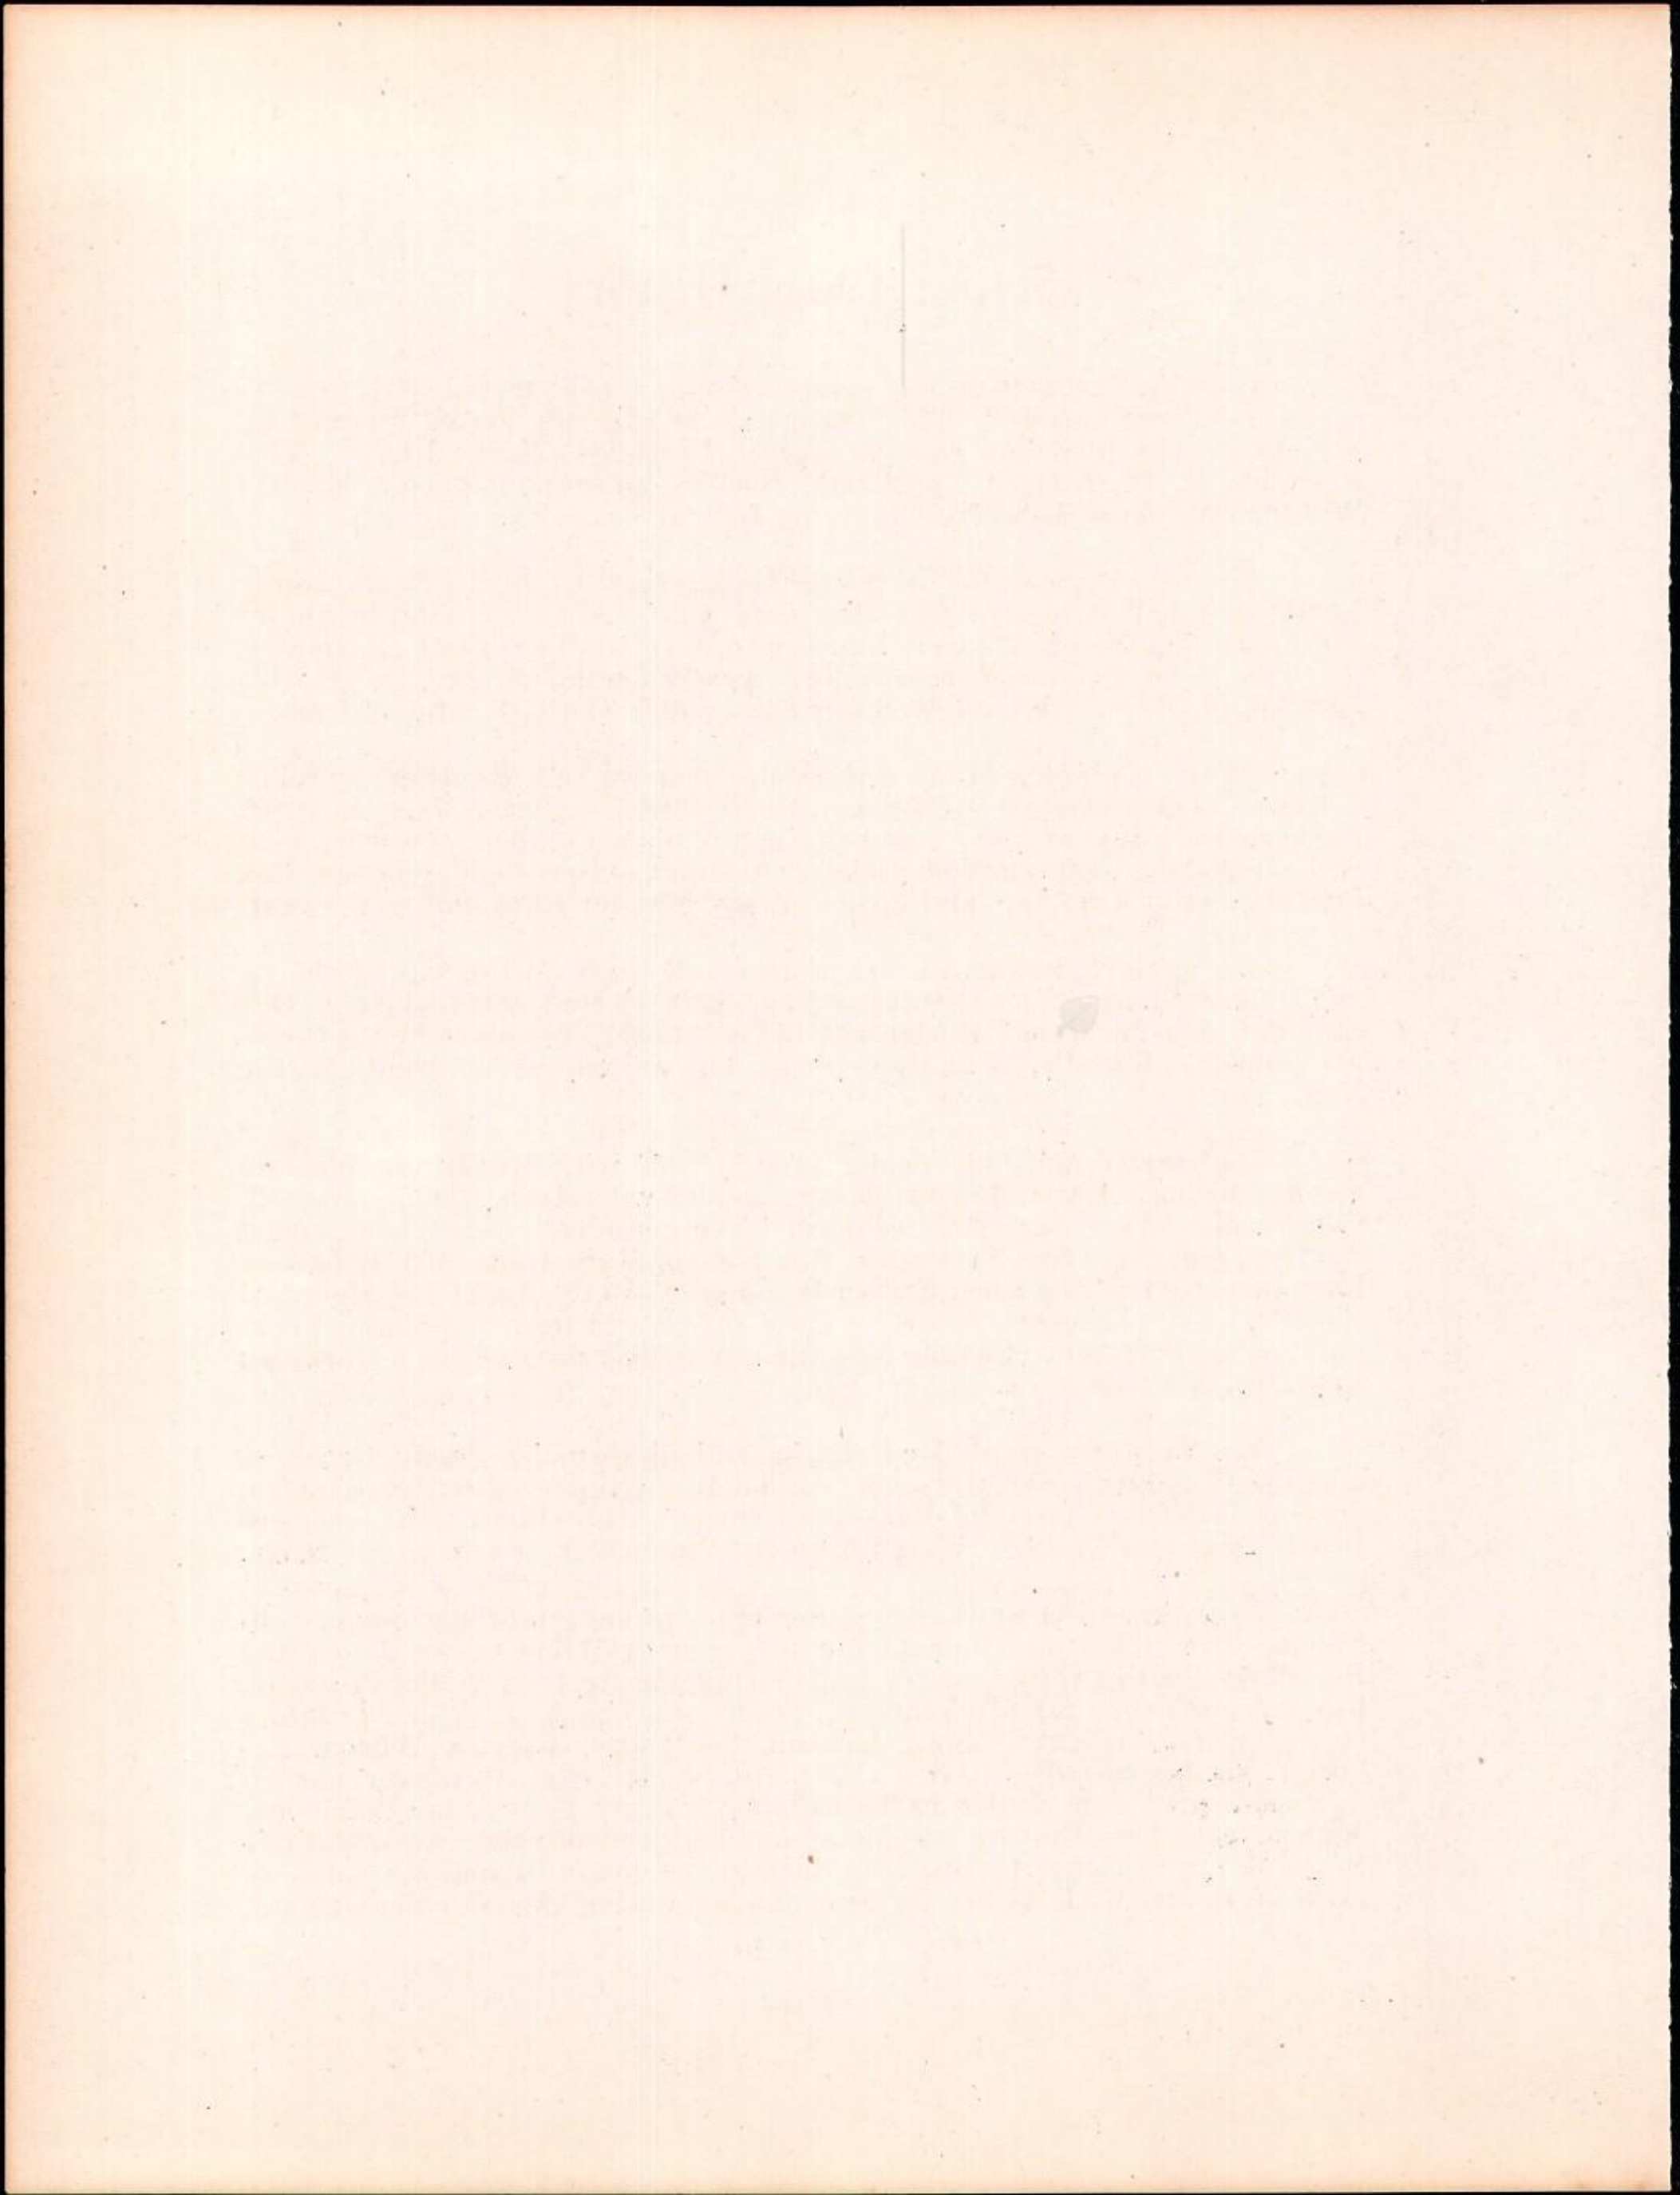

At the beginning of our Sophomore year we had twenty-six enrolled in class. The following students did not return: Norma Jean Bennett, Barbara Burkeen, Frankie Lee Hurt and Wanda Collins. We were glad to have Bobbie Jean Darnell, Shirley Alexander, Sue Bonds, James Max Puckett, Sonny Lockhart and Billy Coursey join our class during the year.

We were represented on the basketball team by Heyward Roberts, and James Neale. Sue Thompson was again elected cheerleader. Our candidate for Basketball Queen was Betty Ahart. We presented a three-act comedy, "Pigtails." Our class picnic was an enjoyable event at the Noble Park.

We started our Jolly Junior year in 1950 with Mr. Milton Walston as our sponsor. The following classmates did not return: Bobbie Darnell, Carlene Moody and James Max Puckett. These students quit school during the first semester: Sue Thompson, Sue Nelson, Mary Edith Miller, Loreda Lawrence, Glenda Sue Ellis, Evelyn Willoughby, Betty Ahart and Heyward Roberts. We chose the following class officers: President, Sonny Lockhart; Vice President, Fannie Mae McClard; Secretary, Peggy Jackson; Reporter, Billy Coursey.

We were represented on the basketball team by Sonny Lockhart and Billy Coursey. We were very proud to have one of our classmates, Jo Ann Oldham, chosen as Basketball Queen. Our Junior Play was entitled "Zeke and Daisy." We enjoyed our Junior-Senior trip to St. Louis.

Now that we are "Dignified Seniors" we have fourteen Seniors enrolled. The following students did not return: Wilma Dean Jones and Rosemary Butler; Billy Coursey quit during the first six weeks of school. Our class officers for the year are Sonny Lockhart, President; James Neale, Vice-President; Peggy Jackson, Secretary; Rosetta Wilson, Reporter. We are proud to have a classmate, Shirley Ann Alexander, elected as cheerleader. Our Senior basketball players are Sonny Lockhart and James Neale. Now that we are ending our high school years, we would like to thank each teacher for his help during the years. Especially are we grateful to Mr. W. B. Miller for his guidance during this, our Senior year.

Class Prophecy

It is twenty years after graduation and I am alone in my room at the White House, as my husband, the President, is touring Europe. I am thinking of my schoolmates and wondering what they are now doing, when suddenly visions appear.

First, I see Jo Ann Oldham, wife of a United States Air Force Chaplain and mother of two lovely children, living in Princeton, Kentucky.

J. D. Grogan is going about his daily tasks as Professor of Campusology at Northwestern University.

Mary Frances Lovett is touring the United States, searching for a male who is willing to become her blushing groom.

Leland Peeler is employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is investigating the murder of a great magician, husband of the former Lucille Turner, who claims it was merely an accident.

Modene Duncan, secretary to the Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky, has just announced her engagement and approaching marriage to the State's Governor.

Sonny Lockhart, one time great in the N. C. A. A., has purchased the restaurant formerly known as Finley's Drive-In, where he and his wife are operating a successful business.

Mary Lou Witty, a modern Kentucky novelist, has just written a book of poems which she calls "Poetry For The Love-Sick."

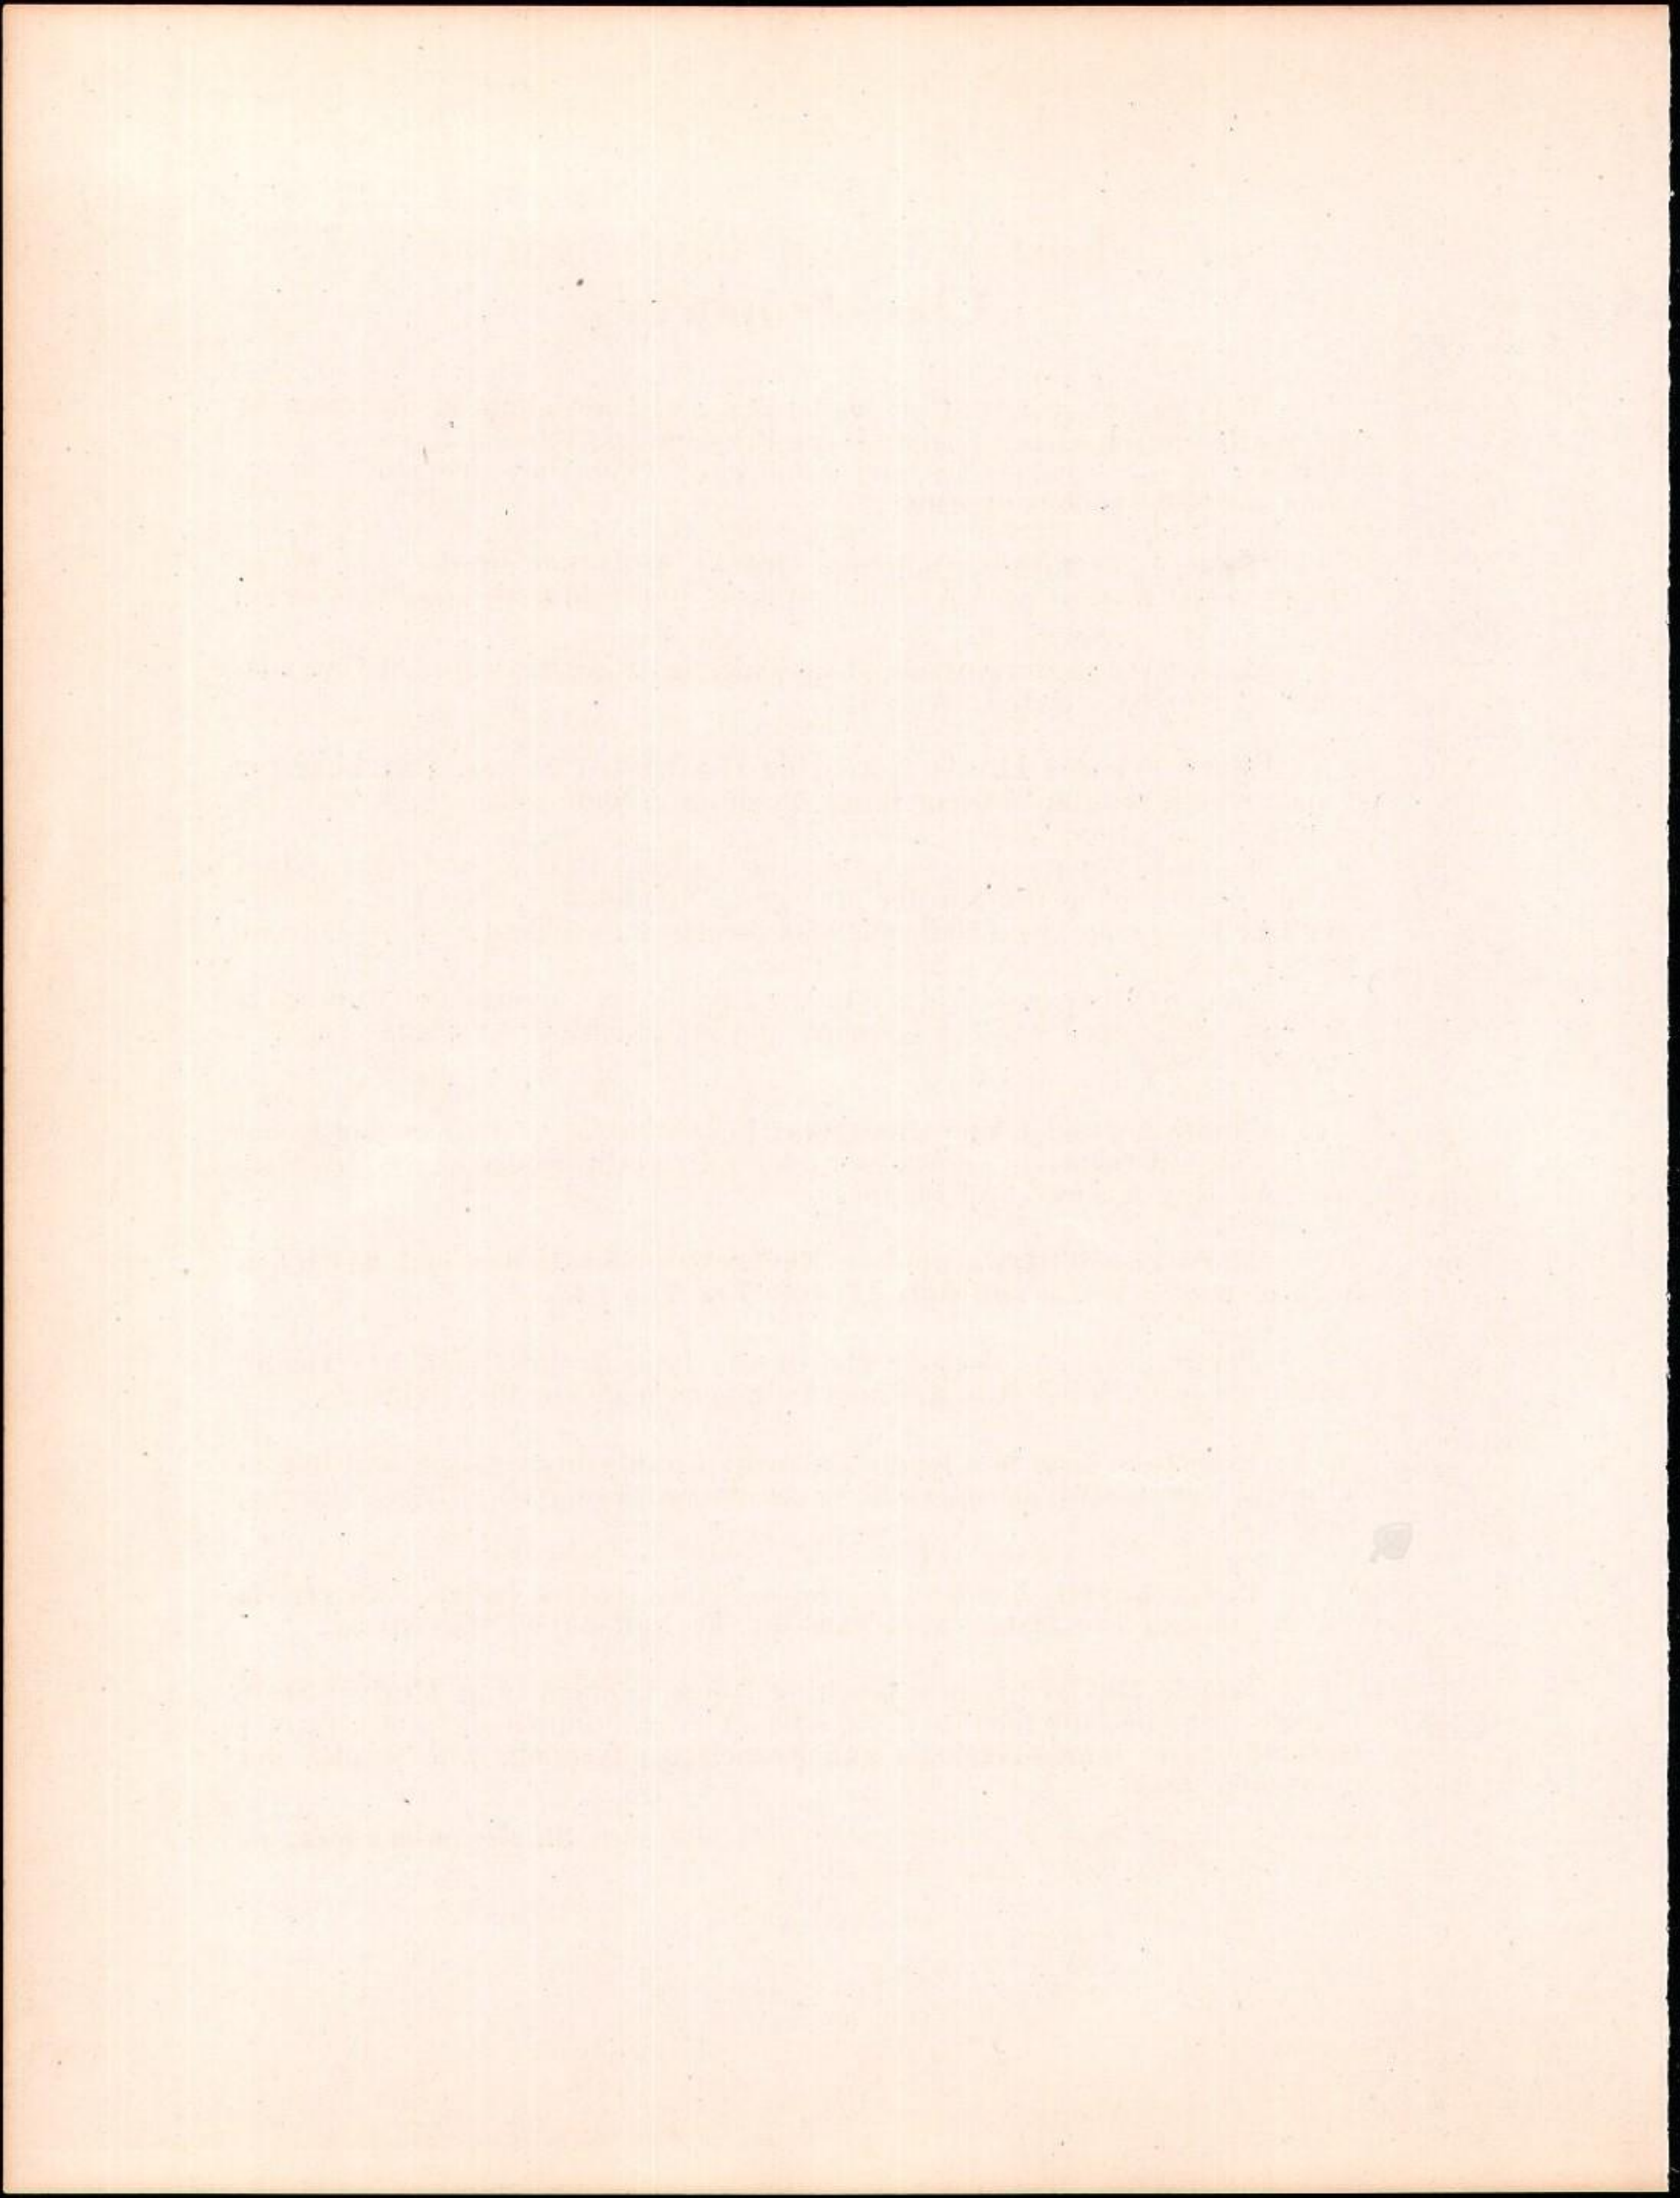

Peggy Jackson, glamour girl of the 1952 Senior Class, has finally settled down with her husband and twin sons near Dexter, Kentucky.

Rosetta Wilson is a lovely Calloway County homemaker and housewife who has recently become a news commentator of W. N. B. S. in Murray, Kentucky.

Harry Lovett, husband of the world's greatest ballet dancer, is driving one of the fastest race cars on the Indianapolis Speedway.

Fannie McClard is now teaching Home Economics at Murray State College. She had intended to always be an old maid until she met a former classmate, Dr. James Neale, a San Francisco physician, who stole her heart and hand.

Shirley Alexander.

Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class

We, the Senior Class of Almo High School, being of sound mind do ordain and establish this Class Will of 1951-52.

To the Junior Class, as our successors of eminent worth, we leave our autographed seats, Senior dignity and class spirit. Be of better behavior than we have been and always respect the faculty members to whom we are deeply grateful for the many patient hours they have spent with us.

To the Sophomores, we leave our good reputation, ability to learn rapidly and our way of getting along with the teachers.

To the Freshmen, we leave our grit, will, and grace to continue on through school. "Where there's a will, there's a way."

We leave to individual members of the student body the following personal possessions, hoping they will be of use to you in the future:

- 1 — I, Leland Peeler, bequeath my talent as an artist to Jimmy Connor.
- 2 — I, Peggy Jackson, will my loud mouth to Pearlene Nanney, so she won't have to use a loud speaker.
- 3 — I, Modene Duncan, leave my red hair to Katie Compton. Here's hoping she doesn't have to dye hers.
- 4 — I, Harry Lovett, will my handsome features to Jimmy Rutland. Maybe he will see the time when he's as good looking as I.
- 5 — I, Rosetta Wilson, bequeath my ability to write Dale's compositions to Zora Mae Turner.
- 6 — I, Mary Lou Witty, will my small waistline to Datha Cleaver, so she will reduce without dieting.
- 7 — I, J. D. Grogan, will my good natured ways to Max Lovett.
- 8 — I, Lucille Turner, will my height to Allie Mae Vance so she will be as tall as her beau.
- 9 — I, Fannie Mae McClard, bequeath my dignified ways to Patsy Kingins. Maybe they will be of use to her soon.
- 10 — I, James Neale, will my ability to make A's to Dale Burkeen.
- 11 — I, Shirley Alexander, leave my position as cheerleader to Doris Graham.
- 12 — I, Jo Ann Oldham, will my flirty ways to Mattie Ann Lassiter, provided she will use them as wisely as I have.
- 13 — I, Sonny Lockhart, will my ability to shoot a basketball with my left hand to Gary Wicker.
- 14 — I, Mary Frances Lovett, will my ability to giggle in government class to Betty Lou Cope.

In witness hereof is attached the signatures of:

Senior Class Poem of 51-52

As you turn the pages of this book so dear,
You'll find that our names are written here.
We, the Almo class of '52,
Treasure the years we've shared with you.
And as the school year comes to an end,
We say "so long" to every friend.

Fannie McClard, the "A" student of the class,
Always works hard and stays to the last.
A Home Economic teacher she plans to be,
I'm glad she'll teach my children instead of me.

Harry Lovett is everyone's boy,
He says "he winks at the girls just for joy."
He's a swell guy as everyone knows,
Let someone mention skipping school and he's ready to go.

Shirley Alexander is hunting a man,
She always looks the best she can.
If she doesn't get one she is going to be hurt,
But that doesn't keep her from being a flirt.

Modene Duncan is very meek and shy,
But everyone is saying "I wonder why?"
Because if you'll notice those big blue eyes,
You'll see that in them glamour lies.

J. D. Grogan's the master mind of our class,
If you stay with him you'll never be last.
Of course J. D. is a very fine kid,
Of all his manners the girls try to rid.

Rosetta Wilson is having the time of her life,
Her ambition is to be a housewife.
There's an old saying: "Temper goes with red hair,"
But with this gal would that be fair?

Mary Frances Lovett is packed with fun,
When the boys see her they get ready to run.
Altho of her we all are fond,
Of all her gang she's the jolliest one.

Sonny Lockhart's our basketball star,
When there's work to be done he's always far.
But if you will notice his choice of a dame,
Here's where Sonny comes in for fame.

Senior Class Poem of 51-52

Lucille Turner is hard to describe,
Altho over Almo she is known wide.
I've been told her I. Q. is very high,
That's why dumb people pass her by.

James Neale, a physician is planning to be,
And of his success we all want to see.
I'm sure "high" will be his rate,
Unless horror should turn his fate.

Peggy Jackson is known to be loud,
Altho of her we all are proud.
With all her mischief and jokes,
She gets along with the Almo folks.

Leland Peeler with his artistic mind,
I'm sure many paintings of his you'll find.
I know his career will be a success,
And he will do his very best.

Mary Witty's a very nice kid,
Tell her a joke and her face will get red.
A novelist she plans to be,
And of her career we all agree.

I, Jo Ann Oldham, a true friend have tried to be,
With everyone I meet and everyone I see.
All these years I've shared with you,
I trust you like me as I like you.

ATHLETICS

We've had our share of sports this year,
Win or lose we've had a thriller.
With best of luck to those we leave,
We proudly hail Coach Miller.

Sports Review

In the spring of 1951 graduation and old age claimed a total of four basketball players of the Almo Warrior's starting five. Prospects for the fall of 1951-52 were gloomy indeed. Sonny Lockhart was the only Warrior to be back in school who really had varsity experience. Little Dee Farris had played some first string ball, but very little. Coach Miller has worked with three more boys that have the ability and determination and has come up with a winning five. James Neale, running at forward with Sonny Lockhart has played good ball as has Jackie Burkeen, a very fine rebounder who is filling the other guard spot opposite little Debo. The center position has been left up to Sonny's little brother, Bobby Lockhart, who has filled it very efficiently. Bob stands an even 6' 2". The Warriors have been given some fine substituting by Max Lovett and Red Connor. There are three Sophomores on our squad which should play some good ball in the future. They are Dan Cain and Graves Morris, forwards; and Marvin McDaniel, guard. Our record now stands at 14 won—8 lost.

Almo Warriors Play Championship Ball To Win Tourney Warriors Advance To Finals In Tournament

By Bill Smith

The Almo Warriors downed New Concord 59-53 in the finals of the Calloway County Tournament last night to win the 1951-52 county championship.

Most of the credit for the victory went to Dee Farris, a 5' 6" ball of fire, whose outstanding play enabled the Warriors to pull away in the last two quarters. Time and time again the hard charging guard broke through the Redbird's defense to score on driving lay-ups. The tiny southpaw scored 25 points during the contest, 11 of them coming in the last quarter. He was the only Warrior to score in that frame.

Almo jumped to a quick 4-0 lead before the Redbirds counted on a spin shot by Willie Dick. Hurt knotted the score at 4-all and then Steele hit a free throw to put Concord out in front.

Concord held onto the lead until shortly before the half, when Farris hit a long set shot that put Almo ahead 29-27 with a minute and a half left. The half ended with Almo on top by 33-32.

Concord regained the lead early in the third period on goals by Hurt and Adams. This was their last lead of the night. After Sonny Lockhart put the Warriors ahead 38-36, on a set shot, the Almo club stayed out in front the rest of the way.

In the last period Almo stretched their lead to nine points, 54-45, the widest margin of the game, as Farris went on a scoring spree. The Warriors froze the ball successfully during the last two minutes to ice the game.

Farris was Almo's leading point-marker with 25. Bobby Steele led the Redbird scoring with 18 markers. Dick was close behind with 16.

The Almo Warriors advanced to the finals by taking a 51-40 decision from Kirksey's Eagles in the second game of the semi-finals last night.

The Warriors got off to a quick start and held a 8-4 lead midway through the first quarter. But the Eagles, sparked by James Suiter, roared back to tie the score, then move out in front 11-10 at the end of the period.

Sonny Lockhart put the Warriors back into the lead 19-18 with four minutes left in the half and from there on Almo was never headed.

The Warriors led 26-35 with four minutes remaining. Almo controlled the ball most of the remaining time and simply waited for the clock to run out.

Sonny Lockhart led the Almo scoring with 22 points. This was also the highest total scored so far in the tournament. Dee Farris was Almo's second high scorer with 13 points.

Bobby Johnson led the losers with 13 markers. He was followed by James Suiter with 9 and Howard McCallon with 8.

Five players left the game on personal fouls. Kirksey lost Treas, McCallon, and Adams while Almo lost Neale and J. Burkeen.
